

Adrian Price

Associate Director

Adrian Price, Regional Manager, Hunter, Central Coast and Northern NSW has been working for the Australian Industry Group in HR, training and business networking roles since 1995.

Adrian has a passion for the development and advancement of the Greater Hunter manufacturing, engineering and technology sector. In conjunction with the Ai Group Hunter Industry Leaders Council, he is setting about implementing several recommendations to assure the longevity of manufacturing in the Region. These include raising the levels of technology and skills in the industry, encouraging entry to global supply chains, and greater product innovation through co-operation with research organisations.