

Graham Baker

Director

Graham is a retired Federal Government Officer for the Department of Industry. He is a former AusIndustry Regional Manager and in his last 5 years worked on the Central Coast to encourage innovation in industry through collaboration. One of his projects was assisting Frank establish CCIC and conducted one of the first reports on the food industry on the Central Coast. Nearly 10 years later he has seen CCIC grow from strength to strength. In retirement, he was, and remains, one of the original directors of CCIC.