

Ken Baker

Associate Director

Ken Baker is a qualified Accountant. Fellow National Institute of Accountants, Fellow Australian Institute of Company Directors, Life member Australian Coal Preparation Society Limited, Former President Central Coast NSW business Chamber. He has worked on the Central Coast for equipment manufacturers for 34 years until retiring from full time employment in 2014 where he held senior management positions including Managing Director of one of the Coast's largest employers Halley & Mellowes Group. He is currently a voluntary director for small local NDIS manufacturer Lasercraft. He has lived on the Central Coast and always looking at better outcomes for the region.