

Nicole Russo

Director

Nicole was born in Newcastle and raised on the beaches of the beautiful Central Coast. From an early age she worked in both retail and hospitality. At 24, whilst managing Pizza Inn she met her husband, Vito Russo. Together they collaborated across several small businesses such as the Pizza Inn franchise, Autostyle Prestige and Performance cars.

Their next dream was to provide affordable and innovative housing to all Australians. Vito developed a product that is the pinnacle of affordable housing today, the towable van that expands into a granny flat.

Nicole became the General Manager in 2010 of Vanhomes and Director in 2013. She is Self-motivated and energetic with exceptional business development and relationship building skills.
