

John Murray

Associate Director

John is a Director, General Manager, and Operations Director with over twelve years board level experience across the public and private sectors with particular experience in the logistics & supply chain, FMCG and operations industries.

Career highlights were: the business turnaround and sale of the National Food Juice business, the root vitalisation of the Crane Copper Tube business, and the success of the Department of Industry, Science, Energy and Resources, Food and Agribusiness Program. John has a Masters of Business Administration, and a Master of Science (food science) from the University of Western Sydney and is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors areas of particular interest, have been developing Business Strategy and Implementation, Managing Businesses Turnaround, Management Coaching, Implementing Change Management, and Project Management