

Margie Haseltine

Director

Margie is an internationally experienced executive. She is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and has extensive experience as a director and chair on boards across a range of industries, including education, retail, hospitality, and freight. This includes sitting on the Board of Bapcor, Newcastle Permanent Building Society, and chairs Bagtrans and Southern Hospitality Ltd- a New Zealand enterprise.

She has held Not for Profit (NFP) director roles for a number of years and is an active mentor in the NFP space through the Kilfnan organisation.

Margie had a career spanning 20 Years with Mars Incorporated – serving 5 years as the CEO of the Mars Food (Masterfoods). As an experienced leader, Margie is passionate about people, great businesses and corporate governance, and has expertise in change management, information technology, supply chain management, and strategic planning and procurement.